

Catawba River Artisans

Policy for Induction of New Members

March 2011

Revised July 1, 2016

Revised October 12, 2018

Application Procedure: The applicant will submit a portfolio that contains images of their work, an artist's statement and biography. The applicant's medium will impact on selection, based upon show space limitations and consensus of other artists who work with the same medium.

The portfolio will be submitted to the Show Committee for review and all member-artists will vote to induct the new member-artist.

Upon acceptance to Catawba River Artisans as a member-artist, the new member-artist has the following rights and responsibilities:

1. Membership: They will be considered a full member immediately.
Dues: The member-artist is responsible for yearly dues of $120. Dues are prorated based on number of months remaining in the membership year and are not refundable.
2. Participation in Show: The new member-artist may participate in all shows and events immediately. The new member artist will be assigned a display area as space allows.
3. Commissions from sales: The new member-artist is responsible to pay 10% commission on all work sold at shows or other CRA events for the duration of their membership.
4. Committees: The new member-artist will be required to participate on one committee.
5. Trial Period: The new member-artist will be required to serve a six month trial period.

Adopted by CRA members on October 12, 2018
